

Business English Trainer (native-speaker)

Алматы, Казахстан

I am writing to offer my services as an English teacher, either of General or Business English or exam preparation. I am presently based in Almaty and would welcome the opportunity to discuss any opportunities that you might currently have.

I have been teaching Business English for 14 years, the last six of which have been spent working at Cheney Court, the residential centre of Marcus Evans Linguarama, training senior managers and directors from most European countries, Russia and Japan. It was commonly the performance of a business skill itself, of which English is a central aspect, that formed the basis of lessons. This more holistic approach to communication has led me to coaching, neuro-linguistic programming and intercultural considerations.

Prior to this, I worked in Frankfurt for five years conducting language-based business skills seminars for groups of students, often taking place in a hotel and lasting for five days. The structure of these courses and the accompanying materials, I designed myself. The clients were primarily banks, insurance companies and law firms. In the evenings, I was responsible for entertaining and socialising with clients.

Once again, I would be very happy to hear from you and discuss further any interest that you might have.
